

Fraud Warning

In no circumstances would the Company or any of its subsidiaries and affiliates companies or any of its employees initiate unsolicited emails or telephone calls requesting organizations or individuals to invest in or trade online in financial instruments in any project or transaction, nor to disclose or confirm personal or financial information, the Company will never request from individuals to transfer fund to personal Accounts not in the name of the Company.

The Company official website operates only under one domain name <https://www.otetmarkets.com>, and is not connected with the hosts of any other websites that may look similar to its official website. You may access the Company website by typing the above domain name into the address bar of your browser, or by bookmarking the genuine website, or contact us through official phone numbers mentioned in our website.

If you receive any suspicious messages or identify any suspicious websites that purport to be related to the Company, please email: info@otetmarkets.com or contact our customer services on the official phone number to confirm your engagement with us.